

Redwood City Data Sheet

Redwood City Elementary (K-8), Enrollment by Race (2018-19)

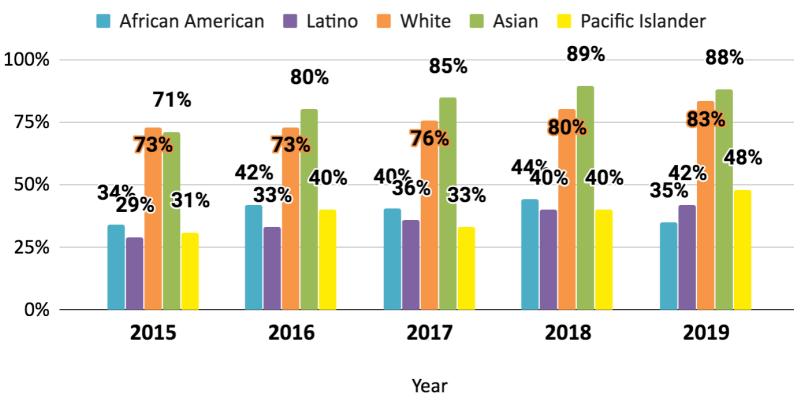

There are 7,524 students (K-8) enrolled in 19 schools in Redwood City Elementary School District.

Over two thirds (68%) of those students are Latino, 73% are low-income, 34% are English Learners, and 12% are students with disabilities.

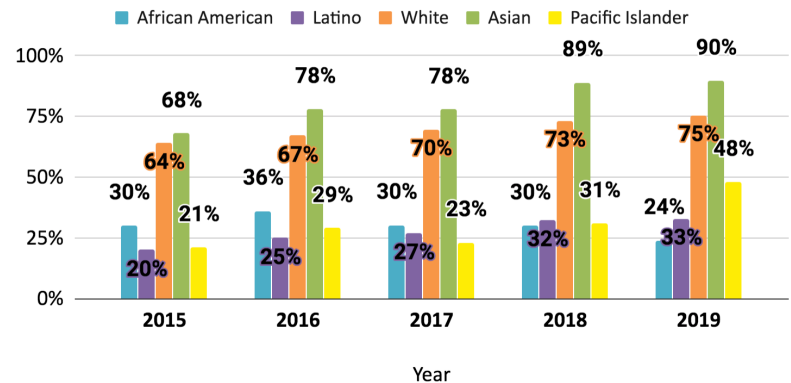

Source: California Department of Education, enrollment files, 2018-19

There are very large gaps in how well the district is doing for African American, Latino and Pacific Islander students. This achievement gap has persisted for the last five years.

Percent of students on grade level in English, 2014-15 to present

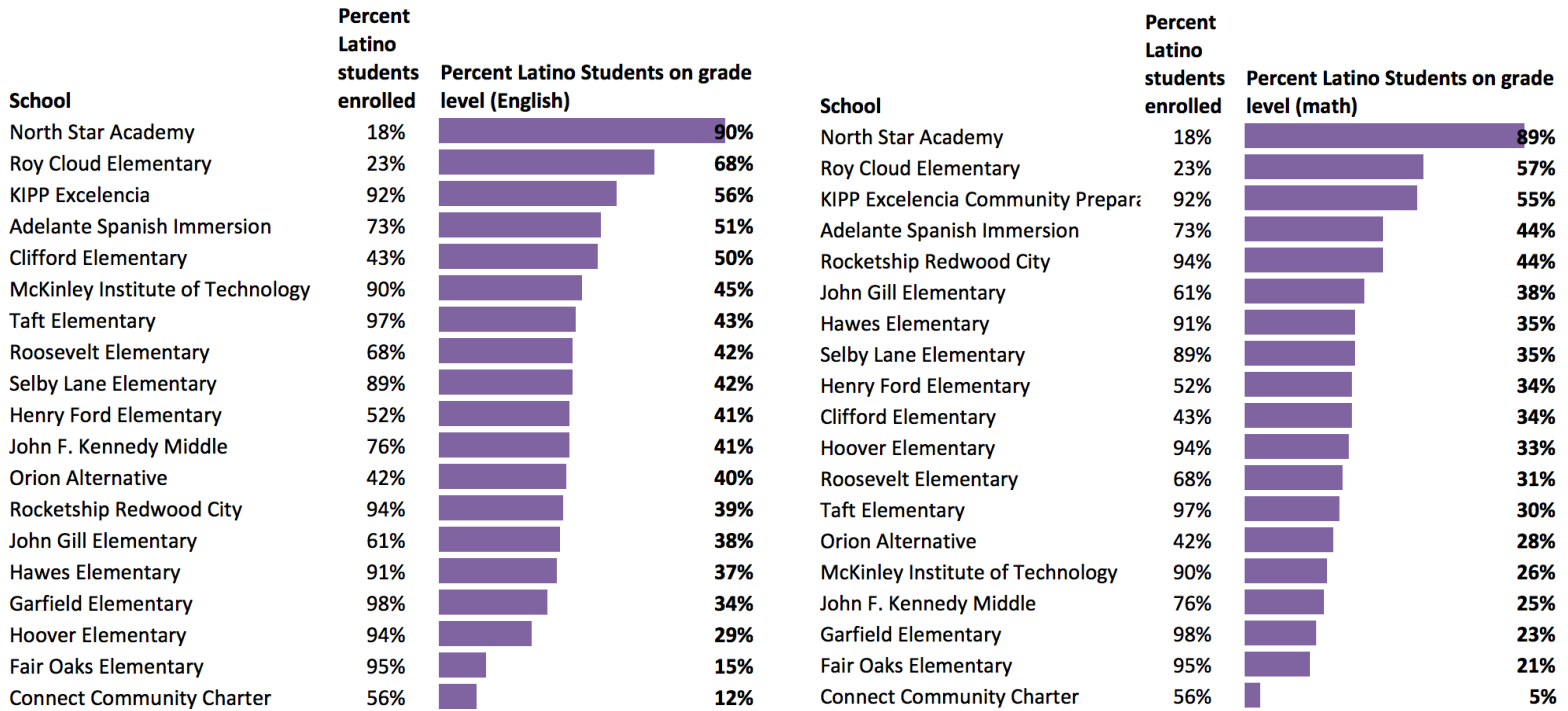

Percent of students on grade level in math, 2014-15 to present

School Lists

Latino students make up 68% of students in Redwood City Elementary. These lists include outcomes in English and math all of the public district and charter schools in Redwood City that tested at least 20 Latino students.

English Learners make up 68% of students in Redwood City Elementary. These lists includes outcomes in English and math all of the public district and charter schools in Redwood City that tested at least 20 English Learners.

